

RULES AND REGULATIONS

I) ACADEMICS

1. Morning Meetings

All residents should be present for the morning meeting in CMR at 6:55 am.

2. Afternoon Clinics & Lectures

Afternoon clinics are compulsory for all residents at 3.30 pm. Lectures by consultants and outside faculty are compulsory for all residents even though they may be revision lectures.

3. Log Books

All residents should maintain daily log books and get it signed on daily basis from respective unit In-charge consultants and to be submitted every Monday for checking by academic department.

II) RESIDENT WARD DUTIES

1. Patient History

On admission of the patient the resident will write the complete detailed history and clinical findings of the patients and advise investigations.

2. Pathology Reports

They will sign all Pathology reports received after verifying them personally.

3. Fitness Physician & Anaesthetist

Fitness given by the physician is to be checked by the resident and informed to the patient as well to the consultant.

Inform physician / anaesthetist / reference to outside consultant (fill reference form) after every admission.

4. Rounds Documentation

They will write detailed morning rounds as regards the condition of the patient and his progress. The morning notes and orders should be written at the bed side and not at the ward counter. They should also enter the consultant's findings.

Daily orders are to be written every morning and in capital letters only.

5. Dressing Wound Status

After every dressing the wound status is to be recorded in the notes (Progress Report) and shown to the consultant.

Preferably take a photo and send to the consultant.

6. Medicine Dose

Daily drugs and the medicine dose given to be checked personally by the resident during morning rounds and prescription given accordingly in the MCI approved format only.

It is mandatory to know the does / adverse reaction / drugs interaction about every drug prescribe by you as are RMP according to MCI rules.

- 7. Discharge Card
Discharge card to be filled one day prior to discharge and consultant's sign should be taken. The residents should not wait till the last day to fill discharge cards probable discharges to be informed on appropriate whatsapp group.
- 8. Discharge Ward Days
Discharge should preferably be only on Ward days and before 1.00 pm. Patient should take appointment from the OPD secretary for his next scheduled visit as per the date given by the doctor.
- 9. Dress Code
All residents should always wear apron & shoes at any given time in the hospital campus especially whenever they are in the wards, OPD and emergency. No doctor should enter the hospital without apron & shoes.
- 10. No Medication over the telephone
Verbal and hand written orders will not be valid/ executed. No orders will be given to the nurse regarding medication over the telephone. The resident should personally come and write it on the case paper after which the nurse will execute the order. (Telephonic order will not be executed as per NABH rules).
- 11. Behavior
All the residents must be extremely careful about their behavior with the patients and staff. Under no circumstances will the resident shout at any patient or the staff even if they are wrong. They should complain about the person / the incident to the administrator and the consultant in writing. Our culture is to treat every patient as our close relative. Caring approach will be the same as for our near and dear ones. You must realize that you are under constant surveillance by CCTVs in every wards and corner of the hospital.
- 12. Consent Form
Prior to taking a patient in OT/EOT the resident will ensure Pre-operative anesthetic fitness and consent form is duly signed.
All consents pertaining to treatment are to be personally taken by resident only.
- 13. Blood Transfusion
If blood transfusion is ordered the resident on duty will ensure the correctness of the blood bottle, stick the counter foil on the case paper; enter the time of starting as well as closing of the B.T. Write necessary orders for any reaction to B.T. The blood will be checked by resident compulsorily in the ward itself. The resident will personally be present while starting the B.T. and wait for 15 mins in the ward after the blood has been started to ensure no untoward reaction occurs.
- 14. Certificates Signing
The resident will not sign any reimbursement papers, insurance forms; neither will they issue any temporary/permanent disability certificates, any duty modification certificate unless told by the consultant. Instead they will direct the patient to the consultant / care manager. Resident is not authorized to sign any certificate or legal document.

- 15. Residents timing in the Hospital
All residents should stay in the hospital campus everyday from 6.55 a.m. till all work is completed or minimum till 6.00 pm and thereafter if work is pending.
- 16. Leave the hospital campus
No resident will leave the hospital campus during duty hours (6.55 am to 6.00 pm) except with prior permission of Medical Director or his locum.
- 17. Treatment of Staff Members
No residents will write any prescriptions/investigations for treatment of staff members. Refer them to staff OPD instant.
- 18. Post Op Round:
Resident should ensure that operated patients should be seen by consultants before leaving the campus.
- 19. Resident Evening Round
The resident will take an evening round along with JC's and put notes along with the respective unit. After the rounds are over, he shall inform the consultants regarding the rounds
- 20. Morning Rounds
The morning and afternoon rounds will be taken with the consultants.
- 21. Documentation :
All records, investigations, orders, pertaining to patient care must be entered into the Hospital EMR : TRIOTREE. Detailed training of the same would be given to every resident on admission.
 - Verbal and hand written orders will not be valid / executed.
 - All residents will be given individual Log-in Ids which are unique. Patient confidentiality must be followed at all times.

III) WARD ROUNDS

- 1. Morning Rounds
Daily morning rounds to be taken with consultant. All patients to be seen and appropriate notes entered into the case paper.
- 2. Evening Rounds
Daily evening rounds to be taken by chief resident with all residents and JC/ Fellow of the unit. After the rounds are done, report to the respective consultant.
- 3. Sunday Rounds
Sunday morning rounds to be taken by JC's & residents before 10.00 a.m. and then report to the consultant. No resident will leave the campus on Sunday before taking rounds. Trauma consultant on call will take round of E-ward & critical patients.
- 4. Independent Rounds
Everyday independent rounds to examine and evaluate patients.

5. Use of mobile phones during ward rounds is not permitted.

IV) OPD

1. Time

The Residents will finish ward work and come to the OPD sharp at 9.30 a.m. The residents will stay in the OPD till all patients are over. If the OPD continues till 3.30 pm then he shall take permission of the respective consultants and attend the Clinic.

2. OPD Patients

All cases coming to the OPD must be shown to the consultant. No resident will see patients on his own. No patients will be disposed without meeting the consultants.

No OPD Patients will be seen in the casualty.

3. Dressing Room

All routine dressings will be done in the dressing room and not in the casualty. However, emergency dressing will be done in casualty only.

To inform OPD receptionist after the dressing is done for recovery of charges.

4. X-ray Coupons

Patients should be given X-ray coupons for the next visit during his present visit to facilitate follow. X-ray form must clearly mention the part to be X-rayed, diagnosis and signed by the resident.

5. Primary Consultation

To be done in cubicles only. Appropriate investigation is to be prescribed by Senior Resident only.

6. Photography for research / thesis must be done after proper consents.

7. Admission Protocol:

The resident has to prescribe the admission form and ensure proper diagnosis, treatment plan, and orders on admission are written on the form. The resident has to then keep track of the admission process and ensure that the file is duly completed in all respective within half hour of patient reaching the ward.

8. Care Manager – Estimates / Insurance :

For any inquiry regarding costs or bill patient has to be directed toward the care manager and the insurance desk. Residents are strictly prohibited from any indulgence regarding the same with patients

9. Use of Mobile phones during OPD is not permitted.

COLD-ON-CALL (COC) RESIDENT

1. Timing

The COC resident (SH & SI) must stay in the campus from 7.30 p.m. to 7.30 a.m. on his call day. He must take the round of operated patients in detail and SMS the same to the concerned consultant and to the Chairman at 9.00 p.m. He must attend every call from the ward of all units. Telephonic orders will not be honored. He will carry the COC phones from Day-COC in casualty & hand it over to the trauma unit Day-COC during the clinical meeting next day.

2. Trauma unit on call

The Trauma unit on call will be responsible for the calls coming during the day. Any emergency will be assisted by the trauma resident during the day (8.00 am to 8.00 pm) and COC will cover during these times in casualty.

3. Cold-on-Call duties (COC)

The COC duties cannot be exchanged unless prior permission is obtained from Dr. Chetan Pradhan

SICOC looks after wards : A,B,E and S wards

SHCOC looks after wards : C,D and I wards

4. Cold-on-Call resident

The COC resident should be available at all the times in the hospital campus. He is required to assist the casualty residents whenever there is mass casualty and will cover for any trauma resident in case of emergency OT or help in emergency surgeries.

5. Display of COC list

A list of doctors on COC for the entire month shall be displayed in all the wards, casualty and at the telephone operator. These duties should not be changed under any circumstances.

6. Intensivists should not be called to manage ward cases / procedures and should be personally informed incase there is an emergency which cannot be handled at resident level.

7. COC Phone Protocols:

- Ensure full charging while they are with you.
- Must be always answered without fail/delay
- Should be properly handed over to next COC

	Mobile No.
CMO – (Casualty)	8806666303
Cold on call resident doctor (SHSS)	8806666304
Cold on call resident doctor (SIOR)	8806666305
Intensivist – E ward	8806666301
Intensivist – I ward	8806666302

8. SHCOC & SICOC phone should be handed over to Day COC resident at 7.30 am and to be taken up from him at 7.30 pm before commencing the COC duty.

9. Both COCs will also be responsible of helping for admission process at the reception counter in the morning. They will physically be present at reception counter for the same.

10. COC will stay in the 'I' ward at all times. They will keep the mobile with them at all times when on call.

V) EMERGENCY DUTIES (CASUALTY)

Casualty must be manned by trauma unit on-call all time 24 x 7.

1. Emergency Day

It is mandatory for all the residents from the respective trauma unit to stay in the emergency at all times on emergency day. They should be available at any time in the campus.

2. Stay in Casualty

Two Resident shall stay in the Casualty through the night. The Casualty should not remain unmanned anytime. At night he will sleep in the provided doctor's room in the casualty.

3. Emergency Room

Other Residents on emergency duty will stay in Doctor's room provided.

4. Strictly follow casualty protocols.

5. All patients coming to casualty will be seen by J.C and all residents.

6. No patient can be allowed to leave the casualty without prescription, case paper & discharge summary.

7. No patient to be referred out of casualty without permission of consultant.

8. Casualty Phone :

- Ensure full charging while they are with you.
- Must be always answered without fail/delay
- Should be properly handed over to next COC

	Mobile No.
CMO – (Casualty)	8806666303
Cold on call resident doctor (SHSS)	8806666304
Cold on call resident doctor (SIOR)	8806666305
Intensivist – E ward	8806666301
Intensivist – I ward	8806666302

9. Patients to emergency

All the patients coming to the emergency, OPD will be initially seen by the residents and necessarily shown to the consultant or Jr. Consultant. No patients will be allowed to leave the casualty unless JC/ Consultant has seen patient. The resident shall visit the patient immediately after getting admitted to ward from casualty, confirm the patient is comfortable and ensure all the orders are followed.

10. Patients admitted

All patients to be admitted in ward only after the consultant has seen the patient. On the admission of any patient the resident will write a complete detailed history and clinical findings and advice investigations. They will personally record the B.P. of the patient. They should fill out the letter form to be sent to the referring doctor and see that it is typed.

11. Evening Round

The resident will take an evening round with JC's and put notes along with the respective unit. The morning rounds will be taken with the senior consultants.

12. DAMA discharges

All DAMA discharges and transfers to other hospital from casualty or ward, must be informed to the consultants and personally to Dr.Parag Sancheti.

13. Presence of consultant

No case in the OT will be started without the presence of consultant.

14. Emergency Cases

All casualty cases to be taken up in OT under anesthesia & must be taken before 6.00 pm with following exception.

- a. All dislocations
- b. Life saving procedures
- c. Open wounds
- d. Vascular injuries
- e. Compound fractures.
- f. Emergency surgery

15. Documentation

The resident must complete notes, orders, prescriptions and discharge cards of all concerned patients in the wards before going to OT or OPD

16. Consents: are mandatory in any of the following circumstances:

- Giving Local Anesthesia
- Any procedure minor (for eg suturing/joint reduction under sedation) or major (like surgery)
- Photographs of patient or patient records must only be taken with prior consent

17. Medical Representatives

No call will be given to the Medical Representatives in the Casualty area.

18. Dressings

No dressings of wards and OPD patients will be done in casualty.

19. Panel Consultants

All panel consultants should be informed about their referrals, personally by the residents and not by the nurses.

20. OT List

The junior resident in casualty must prepare OT list for next day, with all details, including implants. This should be done before 3.30 p.m. Only casualty patients getting admitted after 3.30 pm can be added to the trauma list.

21. If both COC's residents are busy Casualty resident will take COC calls.

22. Behaviors –
 - Dress code (apron should be worn at all time)
 - Eatables not permitted within the premises of the casualty
 - Chatting / studying / thesis work is not permitted in the casualty area.
 - You may study in the resident's room in casualty.
23. Computers in casualty should not be used for any other purpose than EMR

24. Use of Mobile phones in CMR is strictly prohibited.

VI) GENERAL POINTS –

1. Polite Behavior
Polite behavior has to be ensured with all patients and while interacting with colleagues, staff.
2. Dress Code -
Properly shaved, clean apron, polished shoes and over all good appearance is compulsory.
3. Social Media -
All residents need to understand that they are perceived as the representative of this organization. Any idea or comment posted by the resident can have a direct or indirect impact. Be thoughtful before you post.
No resident is allowed to post any information about patients or hospital on Social Media. Posts pertaining to the institute or its pictures or videos, will require prior permission from the Dean / Management.

VII) LEAVE APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. Authorization
Every resident will be given leave only for sickness or family emergencies only. Total permissible leave – 12 days per year.
2. Attendance
All residents will ensure that their attendance will not drop below 92%. In exceptional cases Medical Director may permit leave quota of two years to be availed if the requirement is more than 12 days of that year.
3. Application
Application for leave on prescribed formats is available in PG office, should be submitted one week prior to the date for which leave is applied. In case of emergency the leave form to be handed over to Dr. Chetan Pradhan or Ms. Priya in person.
4. Signature
The resident should take sign of respective consultant.
5. Final Sanction
Locum's signature is required to be obtained on leave form. Final sanction will be given by Dr. Chetan Pradhan subject to the attendance / punctuality record of student.
6. Sundays/ holidays
Sundays and other holidays shall not be treated as leave and residents are expected to remain in campus and be available to attend emergency or mass casualty at short notice.
7. Going out of Station on Sundays
The practice of residents going out of Pune on Sundays is not permitted.

VIII) Raising an Incident –

Any Incident which hampers personal / patient safety must be brought to notice of management through proper channels.

LOG BOOKS

1. Log books will be provided to each resident on day of admission.
2. Log books should be completed and signed by consultant on daily basis.
3. You should get these books checked from Dr. Siddharth Aiyer every Monday.
4. Log books will reflect all your academic activities in SIOR and therefore will be useful to you all throughout your career.
5. Keep your log books clean and neat.
6. Log books will be checked during MCI and MUHS Inspections.
7. If log books are not complete on daily basis, disciplinary action will be taken.
8. At the time of final practical examination, log books will be checked by examiners and will be awarded marks.